SACRAMENTO INTELLIGENCE.

Growth of Nevada City.—The accounts which those who have visited this city give of it seem almost miraculous. In March last, mines were opened which, from their richness, drew crowds of people to that part of the Deer Creek valley where Nevada now stands. Along in April a town sprang up, as is generally the case where a large body of miners are collected in one vicinity. This town was at first composed principally of cloth houses. In this it did not differ from most Californian cities. San Francisco, Sacramento, &c., passed through the cloth era before they arrived at the wood and brick. The town was called Nevada City. Soon, however, "Gold Run" was discovered near it, whose mines exceeded in richness those of any other locality; and as additional crowds flocked in, the city grew apace. The cloth houses began to yield before more substantial wooden tenements, and the rapid growing of the town gave employment to a class of men who, felling trees in the vicinity and splitting out timber suitable for building materials, were called "Clapboard men."

But the effect of new mines which have been continually opening, and the rapid influx of the overland immigration, thousands of whom repaired forthwith to the rich Deer Creek diggings have, in the course of three or four months, built up a great mining town in the heart of the Sierra Nevada, much larger than Stockton.
Our friends at San Francisco, we think, will be surprised to learn that, unknown to them, a town has sprung up on Deer Creek, which is as compactly built, and nearly as large as Sacramento city. It polls a vote double that of Stockton.

While Marysville is as dull as a country town on Sunday, the stores of Nevada city are full of merchandise, a brisk business is going on, and in fact it has, for the present at least, taken the place of Marysville as a sub-distributing point under Sacramento, and as the great entrepot for the Yuba River and Deer Creek diggings.

The point is conceded now, that as Sacramento has put down all rivalry, so Marysville has nothing to fear from Yuba city. Eliza, Pumas, El Dorado, or Nicolaus. But if her foes on the river are no longer objects of solicitude, it seems to us that a more formidable rival than she has yet had to contend with has sprung up in the interior. For we are informed that the road between Sacramento and Nevada is much better than that between Marysville and Nevada, and other things taken into consideration, that our city is on the whole, much more easy of access to the merchants of Nevada than Marysville. Should this prove true, goods for the supply of the vast population around Gold Run, Rough and Ready, &c. will, instead of going from Sacramento to Marysville and thence to the mines, be very likely to pass direct to Nevada city, which has thus grown up in the heart of exceeding rich placers.

District Attorney.—The District Attorney elect, M. S. Latham, Esq., was duly sworn into office to-day, by his Honor Judge Cramer. He immediately enters upon the duties of his office. His majority, over 3000 in the district, is quite a compliment from the people, and is an evidence of their confidence in his legal capacity.
[Ibid.]

Coroner's Inquest.—The coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of a man named John Bradbury, about 21 years of age, formerly of Newport, Jasper county, Ill. He died on the Levee yesterday morning, at ten o'- clock, having been taken ill the night before, about 12 o'clock. The impression was that he died of cholera morbus.—[Ibid.]

STOCKTON INTELLIGENCE.

Attempt to Murder.—We were informed yesterday by a gentleman in from the Mariposa, that four Mexicans attempted to murder three men, owners of a tent on the Mariposa, twelve miles below the town. The Mexicans were camped near the tent of the Americans, and that same evening had begged from the latter some provisions, and cooked them in front of their tent. After they had eaten, they entered the trading tent, armed with short clubs, concealed under their serapes, and at a preconcerted signal commenced an attack upon Whorlan, Bradshaw and Hard, the three white men. Whorlan and Hard escaped from the tent after receiving some blows, while Bradshaw was knocked down behind the counter, and beaten about the head until they supposed him dead. They then robbed the tent of $900, took four of the owners' animals, and fled. Bradshaw had his hat on when struck, and placed his hand under the side of his hat—upon this hand they struck him, he says, at least a dozen blows, breaking and bruising it into helpless uselessness for the remainder of his life, but to this bruised member he attributes his escape from death at the time of attack; had the blows fallen upon his head, his skull would have been broken, and his death ensued without doubt.

Whorlan fled to a Mexican camp some distance above his own, and besought their assistance, and although they were armed, they refused to aid the injured men, or pursue the assassins. [Journal.]

Mexican Depredations.—A rumor is current in town that a number of depredations have recently been committed in the neighborhood of "Pa-checho's Pass," by a marauding party of Mexicans. Report charges them with the murder of two families of emigrants, who were journeying to the lower country over this route.
It is also said that Col. Fremont's agent was recently followed for two days by some of this party, while on his way up the Mariposa, and finally robbed.

We give this rumor as we get it, with the hope that it is one of the thousand and one like dreadful reports circulating from end to end of this territory, which have no foundation in fact. [Jour.]

During Robbery.—A few days ago the desk of a gentleman in this city was robbed of some money in open daylight. After discovering his loss he left his store in charge of a friend while he went out on some business, and by the time he returned his friend had also been robbed. The latter lay down on a serape on the floor, fell asleep, and while in this situation, the rogue, who no doubt committed the first robbery, entered, took the sleeper's knife from his belt, and cut one hundred dollars in gold from the pocket of the coat he was sleeping in, and vanished. [Jour.]

More Quartz Rock Diggings.—A gentleman who came down from the mining region yesterday, submitted to our inspection a number of rich specimens broken from the surface of a ledge near Burn's dry diggings, a few miles east of the Merced river, and almost upon the main road to the Mariposa. The rock is very rich, and our informant says it is very abundant—besides it is situated in the neighborhood of fine timber and water. The discoverer has been offered $30,000 for his claim, but it is his intention to procure the proper machinery, and extract from the rock the precious material with which it is so richly mingled.

Execution of Prof. Webster.— John W. Webster was executed at Boston on Friday the 30th of August, for the murder of Dr. George Parkman. He acknowledged the justice of the sentence, and his conduct on the gallows indicated much firmness, composure and penitence. His body was taken to the residence of his family at Cambridge, in the evening, and during the night was secretly conveyed to Mount Auburn and deposited in the family vault.

THE YUBA.—We learn from an alleged man just down from the North Fork of the Yuba river, that miners who work steadily, are generally doing well. A number of lumps worth from $200 to $300, have lately been taken out. A large number are at work, and although some are disappointed, most of them are meeting a fair return for their labor.

The lay of the Nightingale is said to be a golden egg.

KLAMATH GOLD MINES, River and Town.—One of the most extensive fields for speculation at present in California.

The attention of the public is now called to this very important part of California.
The town of Klamath is situated on the bank and at the vicinity of the mouth of a river, upon the numerous tributaries of which the most productive and extensive gold mines have been discovered of any now in existence in California. The Harbor (at the upper end of which this beautiful town site is situated) is both commodious and secure, and possesses the very superior advantage over all the other ports upon the coast between the Columbia river and San Francisco of a perfectly safe entrance. The river is a magnificent stream and navigable by steamers, according to the opinion of steamboat captains and others in every way competent to judge of the matter, at least 70 miles up; at, and even below which point, these very rich gold mines commence.

Merchants and capitalists who are desirous of realizing a handsome profit upon their goods and an enormous return for their capital cannot enter into a better speculation or make a more safe investment of their means in any part of California, from the fact that there are at present about 2000 miners at work upon this river and its tributaries; and there is every reason to believe, from the numerous satisfactory statements of the miners, relative to their success during the last year, that next year there will be many times the number. The immediate rush to these mines from all parts will be immense, and in fact almost unprecedented; and this town, which may be said to be adjacent, in consequence of the water communication into the very heart of them, must and will undoubtedly be insured a speedy and almost magic growth, and by this time next year will be a very respect-<

The Office of Education is second story by the building, in Montague street, occupied by Payne & Sherman, Auctioneers, where advertisements and communications may be left. The management of the business of the establishment will be under the charge of Mr. A. SKILLMAN.

Thompson & Hitchcock, agents of Gregory's Express, corner of Wall and Pearl streets, New York, are authorized to receive advertisements and subscriptions for the Pacific News.

AGENTS FOR THE PACIFIC NEWS.—Col. Joseph Grant is an Agent for Sacramento City and the valley above.

D. H. Masou, Esq., will hereafter act for us in San Jose, to whom subscriptions may be paid.

STATE BONDS.—Every man in California will be glad to see an improvement in the price of state and city bonds. Mr. Fitch, the auctioneer, made the following sale yesterday:—State Bonds, $1000, 6 mos. interest, 3 per cent. 94½; 1000 do. 6 mos. do. 94 1-8; 3000 do. 5½ mos. do. 91½; 2000 do. 4 mos. do. 90½. City Bonds—2000 3 per cent. 80; 1000 do. 81; 2000 do. 79½.

This shows a decided improvement. Within the week past, state warrants, bearing no interest, have been sold at 80 cents, and bonds bearing three per cent. somewhat higher. The sale yesterday speaks well for the improving credit of the state and city. The admission of California as a State, has had just this effect anticipated, and as the State Government becomes more perfectly organized under the General Government, a still farther improvement will be manifest. California could now, no doubt, negotiate a loan to wipe out her indebtedness, upon better terms than has ever been made by any other new State of the Union. She is not made up of a class of people who would repudiate under any circumstances, and the extent of her mineral resources would warrant the borrowing of sufficient money to pay her present indebtedness, and place her in a prosperous condition, with the confident assurance of a speedy payment of the loan.

We see by the San Francisco Herald, that Judge Morrison has been getting himself into difficulty. He is charged with using his power as Judge for the purpose of levying black mail to the tune of $10,000 in a single operation, while the Pacific News, of which Jonas Winchester is Editor, is said to be the paid organ of the Judge in this extensive operation. Judge Morrison and Editor Winchester are both from this city.

If the Pacific News is the paid organ alluded to, it certainly has not yet recognized the color of the first dollar of the money. We see that our New York contemporaries give more credence to statements of certain journals than they can obtain at home. The fact that Judge Morrison was triumphantly acquitted, after a searching trial, in which extraordinary efforts were made to ensure a conviction, is sufficient refutation of the base charges.

CORRESPONDENTS.—We trust our friends have not failed to peruse the excellent letter, in our yesterday's paper, of the Washington correspondent. It is the first we have received, and the writer, who is admirably qualified from his position to give all the "news" at the Federal Capital, has been engaged permanently to write for the Pacific News. We have also regular correspondents in New York, and other places, whose communications will add to the interest of our columns.

—We invite an old friend in the mining regions to not forget us. News and matters of general interest will always be welcome and acknowledged.

THE OUTSIDE.—Our readers must not neglect to cast their eyes over the outside pages of the News, for they will usually find there some of the best "matter" we can offer for their edification, to say nothing of the advertisements, which no one should ever omit to read who takes any interest in the affairs of trade. On the first page of to-day's issue will be found a capital summary of intelligence from the Sacramento and Stockton papers,—and on the last page a good variety of selections from the Atlantic papers. It is a mistake to suppose all the "good things" appear only on the inside.

Gov. Burnett came down from San Jose yesterday, and immediately went on board the boat for Sacramento. We presume he will be present at our great celebration next Tuesday. We hope to see invitations extended to all who will join us on that occasion, in order that the fête may be brilliant beyond anything ever got up here or elsewhere.

PAPERS FROM THE STATE.—The enterprising Express man, J. W. Gregory has for sale a large number of papers from different parts of the Union. Persons taking to the machine would do well to go along a pack-

John and L. B. Joyce, will be named as a first class Hotel, about the first of the month. Its internal arrangement is decidedly ahead of anything we have seen in California, and in fact we have never examined a building for hotel purposes. On the first floor, in front, is the Saloon, spacious and well arranged, and in rear of this a large Dining Hall, designed for two tables, running the entire length. On the second floor, in front, is a large Parlor, covered with Brussels carpet, and finely furnished and decorated. In rear of this is the office, barber shop and wash room, and still farther back, a series of beautiful and convenient private parlors and sleeping rooms for gentlemen. The third and fourth floors are occupied by large, airy sleeping apartments, many of them double parlors, designed for families.

Every room in the house, as well as the spacious halls leading through the building, will be covered by beautiful carpeting, and in each room will be placed a stove, and all the furniture usually found in the first class hotels in the States. Bells will communicate with the office from every room in the building.

The cooking arrangements will be in the basement, communicating with the dining rooms by means of a dumb waiter. The culinary apparatus will be of the most approved modern style, calculated for doing everything connected with the department, well and promptly.

The house will be in readiness for the reception of boarders probably about the first of the coming month, and will be opened by Isaac M. Hall, Esq., who kept the Parker House, and was burned out in the conflagration of December last. The reputation of Mr. Hall as a caterer for the public, is a guarantee that the Union will be kept in a style unsurpassed by any similar establishment in the old States. From a long and intimate knowledge of his capability, we have no hesitation in saying he has no superior in hotel keeping in California.

The Union Hotel is an ornament to that portion of the city in which it is located, and does great credit to the gentlemanly and energetic proprietors. The whole expense, when furnished, will be about $160,000, nearly double the cost of the famous Astor House. The energy with which the work has been driven forward may be judged of when it is known that it is now only about sixty days since the first brick was laid. The mason work has been done under the direction of Mr. Priestly, and the carpenter work by Mr. White. The substantial manner in which the building has been erected, shows these gentlemen to be men of experience and capacity. Those who desire a quiet home in a first class hotel, with every luxury and convenience of the older cities, will look for the opening of the Union with no little interest.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.—We have received the "Journal of the Senate of the State of California," at their First Session," (pp. 570), and the "Journal of Proceedings of the House of Assembly of the State of California at its First Session," pp. 777.) forming, together, a thick, well-bound volume of 1347 pages. It bears the imprint of "J. Winchester, State Printer, San Jose," but was of course executed for him in this city. A finer specimen of typography we never saw in a work of its class, and its paper, presswork, &c. are of decided excellence. Such printing is not often obtained by Legislative contract, and we congratulate the new State on her choice of a printer who understands how to obtain good work and will be satisfied with no other. We understand the Laws of California are now being printed with equal beauty of workmanship. [Tribune, Sept. 13.]

This commendation of the manner in which the work committed to our charge by the State, has been executed, is peculiarly gratifying. Most other States, when they entered the Union, had very few printed laws, depending mainly upon the written record for information. But California takes her place with every LEGISLATIVE ENACTMENT beautifully printed and bound, presenting at a glance a full view of what has been done while standing "alone in her glory." This has been done at an immense expenditure of money, for which we have received in return a "right smart" pile of State Warrants, bearing no interest, and redeemable poco tiempo, which have been sacrificed to a large extent to secure to the State the volume of which our generous friend, of the "Tribune," speaks in such commendatory terms.

By the steamer Oregon, on Friday, of the Legislature were received, the transportation of which, by way of the Isthmus, cost us four dollars a volume. The edition of the Journal.

The Grand Lodge of the U. S. of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows met at Cincinnati on Monday, Sept. 8, but up to Thursday, the 12th, no quorum had been formed, and it was said there would not be until the Monday following. A grand levee was given at the Burnett House on the evening of the 11th in honor of the occasion, which is spoken of as the most splendid affair of the kind ever witnessed west of the Alleghenies.

The "Gazette of the Union and Golden Rule," the leading journal of the order, published in New York, speaking of the meeting of the Grand Lodge, and the important questions coming before that body for action, says:

"The period has come when the immense mass of the Order demand for its supreme head a constitution which shall strictly define the powers of its officers, and so hedge them about that they shall be executive, and leave them no loophole through which they can assume to be the legislators of the Order. It is not to be denied that the government of the Order is a pure despotism if all the obligations of members are regarded literally, and that all the powers and privileges of the Order are held at the pleasure of the Odd Fellows who organized themselves upon our shores. While this is true, it is equally certain that no such claim as this is now, or ever can be allowed.

"The old feeling that Grand Lodge and Subordinate Lodge officers can do what they please, despite the feelings of their constituents, must go to the wall, and our superiors in rank must remember that the potent influence of the ballot box can reduce them to the ranks, and place those at the helm who will ever remember that office was not given them to gratify their vanity, but simply to preserve the organization and carry out the principles of our association.

"The Grand Lodge of the United States needs to be simply a committee to supervise the Order, insure uniformity in the work, and exercise such a care over the State Bodies as shall secure to their constituents the strictest administration of local law. This, and the advantage of possessing a central power where the statistics of the order shall be gathered, and from which our travelling passport shall emanate, is all we need and more will not be sanctioned by the Order."

We are glad to see that the governmental reforms in Odd Fellowship are likely to be effected; and it is a gratification to us to know that the seed sown by those leading men in the Order, who resisted the usurpation of the rights of a large portion of the fraternity in New York, by the Grand Sir and Grand Lodge, during the years 1847 and '48, is springing up into a bounteous harvest of good to that wide spread and influential institution. Though many were ostracized for opinion's sake by the minority of the Order in New York, in the division which took place, they yet regard the progress of Odd Fellowship with a deep interest.

CHEAP BOOKS.—It will be seen by reference to the advertising page, that the enterprising STILL has removed from the St. Francis to his new Store on the upper side of the Plaza, near Atwell's Music Saloon. He has received, as we see, an enormous stock of cheap literature, which will, he says, be sold at greatly reduced prices, thus bringing the latest works of the popular authors of the day within the means of all classes of our citizens. We are rapidly acquiring, here in California, all the materials for social and intellectual enjoyment that we were accustomed to in our former homes, and to STILL we look for the literary portion of them. Success to him.

BERFORD'S EXPRESS STAGE to San Jose leaves every morning at eight o'clock, and so largely has the travel increased during the past season, that the applications for seats are more numerous than can be accommodated. This line has recently changed hands, but we do not know who are the new proprietors. Berford's Express for letters and packages is one of great accommodation to the public, and cannot fail to be well rewarded. This company are making arrangements to extend their operations to all parts of the U. S., and from their well known promptitude will secure a full share of business.

THE NEWS AT SAN JOSE.—There were great doings at the State Capital when Berford & Co.'s stage arrived there on Saturday. The public joy seemed no less deep, nor the demonstrations less noisy than in San Francisco. Bon fires, illuminations, huzzas, speeches, and rockets were the order of the afternoon and evening. We understand that preparations are making to celebrate the event on Tuesday of next week, in grand style.

M. G. LEONARD, Chair'n. J. H. Gilson, Sec'y.

Editor of Pacific News: Although I wrote you a long letter last week since, I venture to write again, to-day, regarding the state of our affairs.

The late change of Ministers has caused a little more activity in their proceedings. Mr. Payno (Ministro de Hacienda,) has ordered the creation of contra-guardas for the protection of the boundary line against smuggling from the United States, and published a law regarding the introduction of goods to the annual fair of San Juan de los Lagos, a copy of which I enclose.

The Indians have lately committed more atrocities—invading Chihuahua and Durango, and our Minister at Washington has been desired to ask from your government a compliance with the 11th Article of the Treaty of Guadalupe, respecting the assistance promised by the United States in checking the Indians in their incursions on the Mexican territory.

A great deal has been done for the benefit of the town, and a new hospital "de San Pablo," and a new penitentiary have been founded by private donations.

A little more energy has also been shown even by the troops stationed on our high roads; and though the diligences and arrieros are as often plundered as before, the robbers have in several instances been shot, the soldiers pretending that they tried to make their escape. I think they did perfectly right, because leaving the matter to the judges, would be equal to putting them at liberty, and exposing the officer to assassination as soon as he should enter the village to which the perpetrators belong. You can see by this, why the Alcaldes dare not interfere with these highwaymen.

On a elevation which is situated on an island in the Lake of Texcoco. This salt lake has since been withdrawing its waters to a distance of one or two leagues from town, so that this fine mirror can be seen only from the 'azoteas,' or roofs.

During the rainy season, from June to September, the low ground around the lake is covered with water, which drying away in the remainder of the year, leaves a white cover of what is called 'Teguesquite,' being a mixture of common salt and carbonate of soda, which is purified and separated by the poor Indians who live at the Penon Mejicalcingo, San Pablo, San Pedro, &c., but an Englishman, Mr. John Bowring, tries now to give a deathblow to these poor devils, asking for a privilege to separate the above named salts, by a new process of his own invention, and a hard struggle this will become.

Yours truly, OBSERVADOR.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR.—A few days ago we had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of R. J. RYAN, Esq., of New York, who had just landed upon the shores of the Golden Land, having spent some time in Panama, conducting the Echo. We are now gratified to learn that he has been admitted to the practice of the law in the Courts of this State, and designs to make San Francisco his permanent residence.

It may be remembered by many of our readers that Mr. Ryan was the American citizen who was, for so long a time, imprisoned in Ireland for entertaining too strong a sympathy for the liberation of the Green Isle from the thralldom of the British government. An ardent, patriotic, true hearted man, thoroughly imbued with a love of liberty, and the glorious country where every man can "sit under his own vine, with none to make him afraid." Mr. Ryan is cordially commended to the confidence of our citizens. We bid him and all others who come here to cast their lot with the fortunes of this new State, a hearty welcome.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.—We take particular pleasure in calling attention to the auction advertisement of Garniss & Co. under the regular head. This firm is composed of active, prompt and gentlemanly men, and with such it is always a satisfaction to transact business. Their sale to-day consists of provisions, paints, wines, fruit, carpeting, &c., which is well worth the attention of dealers.

Information is wanted of William N. Blake, who was at Rose's Bar, on the Yuba, in April last, since which his friends have no news of him. Should this meet the eye of any miner from the Yuba, or of any one else who can give any account of him, they will confer a favor by addressing this office. Transcript and Times, Sacramento City, and Marysville Herald, please copy.

A resolution was received from the Assistants, authorizing the Mayor and Fire committees to furnish Engine company No. 5 with fire apparatus; concurred in. Board adjourned.

The Ordinance creating the office of Recorder's clerk was taken up and finally passed. The Ordinance to grade a certain portion of Kearny st. and Broadway, was lost. A reconsideration was moved and carried.

"The sum total of foreign letters received at, and sent from, the Post-office in this city, reaches the enormous amount of three hundred and twenty thousand for the month of August, making an average of over 11,000 letters daily, in addition to the regular business of the office. Of this amount 108,000 were sent to Europe, and 118,000 received. Forty-five thousand were sent to California, and forty thousand received. The business of the foreign letter department is rapidly increasing, there being no less than twelve regular mail steamers to depart during the month of October.

CALIFORNIA MAILS THROUGH MEXICO.—A correspondent of the New Orleans Bee, writing from Mexico under date of August 10th, says: "I understand from a reliable source, that Colonel Ramsey, an enterprising countryman of ours, has secured from the Mexican government, the exclusive privilege of transporting the United States mails from New Orleans to California and Oregon, through this republic. It can be easily done by the route he proposes, via Acapulco, in sixteen days, say four days from New Orleans to Vera Cruz, two from Vera Cruz to Mexico, two from Mexico to Acapulco, one of the finest ports on the Pacific, and eight from thence to San Francisco.

COMPREHENSIVE INSCRIPTION.—The monument over the remains of President Polk, at Nashville, is grand and imposing, and contains this inscription:—
"By his public policy he defined, established, and extended the boundaries of his country. He planted the laws of the American Union on the shores of the Pacific. His influence and his counsel tended to organize the National Treasury on the principle of the Constitution, and to apply the rule of freedom to navigation, trade, and industry."

NICARAGUA ROUTE.—The N. Y. Eve. Post of the 7th ult. terms (it says) "from a gentleman just arrived from San Juan Nicaragua, that the steamer Orin had succeeded in ascending the Colorado and entering the San Juan. TEXAS SENATOR.—T. J. Rusk has been re-elected by the Legislature of Texas to the U. S. Senate, by a vote on joint ballot, of 56 to 8. His new term is from 1851 to 1857.

DRESS OF JENNY LIND.—For the gratification our lady readers, we copy from the New York papers the description of Jenny Lind's dress, as she landed from the steamer on Sunday, Sept. 1st: "She looked remarkably well, and though not possessed of any great personal beauty, her features are very regular, and she appears very prepossessing in appearance. She wore a pale blue silk bonnet, covered with lace, a slate colored dress, trimmed with gimp, and a brown broad-cloth cloak, faced with velvet."

The Tribune's description of the dress of the Nightingale is as follows: "Mdlle. Lind was dressed with great taste and simplicity. She wore a robe of rich black cashmere over a dress of silver gray silk, with a pale blue silk hat, and black veil. At her feet lay a silky little lap dog, with ears almost half the length of its body; it was of that rare breed which are worth their weight in gold, and was a present from Queen Victoria. Mdlle. Lind was accompanied by her cousin, Mdlle. Ahmansen."

The Tribune Editor has seen "a splendid diamond breast-pin, valued at $250, which she presented to D. D. Howard, Esq. of the Irving House, as a souvenir of her stay. It is a gift of which the gentlemanly host may well be proud."

Edwin Forrest, the tragedian, was arrested by Sheriff Carney, at the Astor House, says the Tribune, on the complaint of Catherine Forrest, his wife, and held to bail in the sum of $10,000 to keep the peace so far as Mrs. F. is concerned, she being fearful of an assault from him. An injunction has also been granted to restrain Mr. Forrest from conveying away his property to the injury of the right which Mrs. F. has therein. Mrs. Forrest has also, within a few days, commenced a suit against Mr. Forrest in the Courts of this State for divorce on the charge of adultery committed with several persons.

Twenty-Two Thousand Letters.—The Placer Times has just finished publishing the List of Letters remaining in the Sacramento Post Office, for the quarter ending on the 3th ultimo. The Times says it consists of 22,000 letters!

He was at once set to work digging a grave, which he completed. He was paid one dollar for his job, and feeling unwell, he went to bed. During the succeeding night he died, and in the morning was buried in the same grave which but a few hours before his own hands had dug! We were unable to learn the name of this unfortunate man, or any part of his history, save that sad part here recorded.

A person representing himself as a Baptist clergyman, presented his credentials lately, which were probably forged, to the citizens of Hardwick, Vt., and after spending a few weeks at the houses of several of the inhabitants, married a respectable young lady of that village. In a few days he decamped, and has not since been heard of.

A jockey at a fair, who had bargained with a countryman for a horse that happened to have a bald face, observed to the latter that he looked pale in the face. "Yes," said the countryman, "and if you had looked through a halter as long as he has, you would be pale in the face too."

of California, District of the County of Santa Clara: Jose De Arnaz vs. Genoveva Garcia Mangel, Emanuel Mangel and Lorenzo Geoffrey. Petition to foreclose mortgage, &c.:

Whereas, JOSE DE ARNAZ filed in this Court on the 16th day of May, 1850, his petition, showing, among other things, that on the 20th day of December, 1849, Genoveva Garcia Mangel, the wife of Emanuel Mangel, was the owner in fee of a certain house and lot in San Jose, adjoining and in the rear of the house lately occupied by Messrs. Larrain, Benitez & Co., and fronting on Garcia street, did on that day mortgage the same, with the consent of Emanuel Mangel, her husband, to said Arnaz, to secure the sum of five hundred and sixty dollars, payable four months from date: That afterwards, on or about the 15th day of January, 1850, said Emanuel Mangel and Genoveva G. Mangel executed a mortgage on the same premises to one Geoffrey, of San Francisco, for about fourteen hundred dollars; which said mortgage was falsely dated the 19th of December, 1849, with intent to defeat the prior mortgage lien on said real estate, and to cheat and defraud said petitioner out of his debt. Said petitioner prays discovery and full answer to the above facts, that said mortgage to Geoffrey be set aside as fraudulent, and that said premises be sold to pay petitioner's mortgage, and for general relief.

And it being proved by affidavit to the satisfaction of this Court that Emanuel Mangel is a non-resident of this State, notice is hereby given to Emanuel Mangel to be and appear before the Honorable Court of the Third Judicial District, for the County of Santa Clara, on the fourth Monday of December, 1850, at the court house in San Jose, then and there to answer said petition, or, in default thereof, the allegation therein contained will be heard in your absence and decreed accordingly.

Given under my hand and private seal, there being no seal of office, L. S. fice yet provided at this office, this 24th of May, A. D. 1850.
